

Edward de Bono's 6 Thinking Hats (MB5)

There are six different coloured hats. Each colour defines a type of thinking.

- White – information and facts
- Yellow – positive elements
- Black – negative aspects
- Red – feelings and emotions
- Green – improvements
- Blue – overview

The aim of Thinking Hats is to encourage participants to think creatively and from a range of angles.

There is more information on various websites including:

www.debonoforschools.com/asp/six_hats