

The Skinners School Trial

Written by Stoyan

Wednesday, 25 April 2012 00:00 - Last Updated Wednesday, 23 May 2012 16:20

Eight students from The Skinners School trialled the Introductory Module at Epping Forest Field Centre. The feedback from both the teacher and the learners was very positive.

“A genuine progression from first principles through to a deeper insight and understanding of closed loop systems”

Teacher

“It has helped me to realize the potential of using nature to solve future problems”

Learner